ARTIFACT DISCOVERY SAYS NO PEACE!

AOO Wire Service- Even though the world has made one attempt after another to have world peace, it was revealed today by a young man reading the text in an artifact called the Bible, that this will not occur until after the Messiah has returned to judge the living and the dead. And fight the wickedness of this world.

The verses that was found today was in Haggai 2:5-9 which was the prophecy of things to come and Revelation 19:11-21 where the prophecy of the Fifth Horseman is foretold in great detail.

If these statements are true, then the world and all the professing followers of Christ who have spent their lives trying for world peace, have wasted over 2000 years.

Further examination of these writings in the Bible has indicated that all these wars, famines, pestilences, and various other international world disasters have been a warning of the times yet to come.

Apparently these signs are an indication that the last hours & last days before the Return Of The King, Jesus Christ.

Of the many professing Christians interviewed about this recent development, their answer to the question why they were still hiding out in their barracks (church buildings) instead of following their leader and witnessing the gospel, they responded with it's not my MOS (Military Occupational Specialty)

Please read the related story, AWOL Christians for more information.

AWOL CHRISTIANS

AOO Wire Service- The leaders of the Army of God from the Kingdom of Heaven, issued arrest warrants today for 2,038 million professing Christians, under Article 32, UCBJ; Mark 16:15.

This was a bold move by the Kingdom of Heaven, considering their total Army of God is estimated at 2, 039 million service personal, The numbers indicate that over 99% of their military is in fact AWOL. Officials prayed they would receive help from the Holy Spirit to convict these AWOL soldiers. They stated that the evidence would be overwhelming for conviction rates when these criminals were brought to trial.

Our investigation substantiated those claims, the majority of professing Christians found in the barracks, stated they only showed up once a week for the local commander's inspection. They said they went about their normal lives the rest of the week. These soldiers talked a great- Cont'd

Cont'd- a great story of Adoration for their King, but they couldn't back it up with any action, just talk. Our undercover investigation on the streets, where the King of the Kingdom of Heaven has ordered His Army to preach His Gospel to every creature, we found only a few of the last remnants of soldiers fighting the good fight of faith.

As these soldiers would engage in spiritual battle, the professing Christians argued with their comrades that they never received communication nor orders from the Commander in Charge. They insisted that by hiding out in the barracks once a week for a couple of hours playing games, singing songs, having barbeques, and of course consuming coffee and doughnuts, they were doing their part to follow the orders of the Great Commission. It appears that the majority of them have sworn allegiance to the New World Order.

It seemed to all our reporters in every city and town that this was now standard practice for the last 1700 years. That in fact the majority of these professing Christians are indeed AWOL according to the UCBJ (Uniform Code of Biblical Justice). These soldiers seemed to be involved in everything but which they were sworn into service to do: reach out to the lost with the gospel of salvation. It seems

Flywheel— Now on DVD

Jay Austin wants to sell used cars in the worst way ... and that's exactly how he does business at his dealership. Promising much more than he can ever deliver, he'll do whatever it takes to sell a car. His manipulative ways permeate all of his relationships—even his wife and son know they can't trust him.

But as Jay works on restoring a classic convertible, he begins to see that God is working on restoring him as well. Coming face-to-face with the reality of how he truly conducts himself, Jay Austin begins the ride of his life as he commits to honoring God with his business, his relationships, and his life!

Mark 16:15

the world. For they don't understand that the barracks is meant to be a place where real soldiers are to be fed and equipped for war, not a place to settle down in or as a comfortable snuggery in which to enjoy themselves. Their

King has given them the weaponry & amour to win this battle , but they refuse to get suited up with their battle dress and prepare the canons for war.

Their Scriptures state that they “wrestle not with flesh and blood”, but it seems that the majority of these AWOL Christians “wrestle NOT at all”.

Many interviewed stated that they would deny their allegiance to their King if pressured to choose between their King or the New World Order.
