ARCHAEOLOGICAL DIG FINDS 100'S OF FROZEN CHOSEN CORPSES The future

AOO Wire Service- A massive archeological discovery today in the Northeast Quadrant of R-74 has found 100's of Frozen Chosen Believers. Dr Vladimir Solsvensky told our reporters today that well over of a hundred frozen corpses were discovered in what appears to be an ancient temple.

R-74 was an area of rebellion years ago before the Messiah, President Shellac Hussein Omama, came to earth to save us all. This quadrant had pockets of Haters of Man that tried to persuade people that our God, Messiah Shellac Hussein Omama was not God. Their religious superstitions were based upon a fiction book called the Bible and that a man named Jesus Christ was the Messiah.

Their false worship was of the belief that this man who died and supposedly rose again 3 days later was going to return to judge us. Fortunately most of these Haters have been arrested and this false religion has been put to an end.

God is here with us today and ruling his people today. He has told us we will all become gods like him if we just believe in man.

THE ARMOR OF GOD: EXPOSED PART 1

The present..

AOO Wire Service—This series will examine what the majority of professing Christians do not understand, or refuse to obey Christ, when He commanded us into battle. First, write down your answer to this question, and leave it in front of you as you read this article, for that matter, as you read the bible. How many souls did you witness the gospel to in each month, in the last 12 months? Did you even witness to one person per month? Let's move on to the war. Do you know Christian that we are in a war? Or do you buy the false garbage from emergent new age Christianity such as the heretics Rob Bell or Rick Warren as they market and sell to their "Christians" who don't know God or His Word? They tug at your emotions and feelings, they tell us we just have to accept the reality that Jesus died for us, and go about the world telling and showing everyone a false love, while enjoying a sampling of the world's sin. But no repentance! These false teachers either directly or indirectly work for the darkside, satan. These are facts about these men and 100's more like them, if you wish to disagree with these facts then place your head back into the world's sand and wait until judgment day were you will hear the words from Jesus "Go away from me, I knew you not." There is no difference between the false teachers of today than the false teachers of the past; they both tell you that you cannot understand the word of God. In the past, the priest told everyone that only a man that was ordained into divinity through canon law could understand the Scriptures. Yet today these heretics state that no one can, as the Bible is constantly evolving like God. It was deceit then, it's deceit now just a different marketing package of propaganda for satan's will.

This particular group, the Frozen Chosen, were the some of the last of these believers of the Bible. They were almost like the rest of mankind, worshipping themselves as we should, and pursuing everything that makes us happy. But these people, for some reason, would hang onto the superstitions of this Jesus Christ man. Once a week they would enter their temple and sing songs, have meals usually consisting of cakes and beverages like coffee and flavored tonic water, say repetitive ritual prayers, and listen to one man tell stories. But then they would leave their temple, and the power of the of the true Messiah would straighten them out; and they would immediately go back to righteously worshipping themselves and all of mankind.

The term Frozen Chosen was given to them by the last of these radical Haters of the time. These Hater radicals called the majority of these people, false converts of their faith. Apparently if one was a True Hater, according to their Bible, they would follow & trust in Jesus Christ and Him alone. Then some type of psychological hypnotism would occur where the person would become brainwashed by this false religion and start hating the things of man and loving the things of their God. That was the standard test according to their Scriptures to see if in fact they were true followers of this God Jesus Christ. So the real followers named the majority of these people, who claimed to follow Jesus Christ, the Frozen Chosen because they were still frozen into the love of mankind.

Dr Solsvensky commented that these people were under some type up final spell before they were killed by an unknown force. The archeological dig found these people positioned kneeling down holding their outlawed fiction book, the Bible, as they died. He stated that these people were most likely drugged by the faithful Haters just before they died, and that would account for their kneeling positions.

The Ministry of the Defense of Man, is investigating whether this area should be radiated with nuclear small bombs to insure that the drugs used to brainwash these "false converts" doesn't become airborne and cause an epidemic.

Mark 16:15

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

THE ARMOR OF GOD:

They are a cultic reinterpretation of Scripture that yields another Jesus and another gospel (2 Corinthians 11:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9) will yield only eternal death (Revelation 20:11-15).

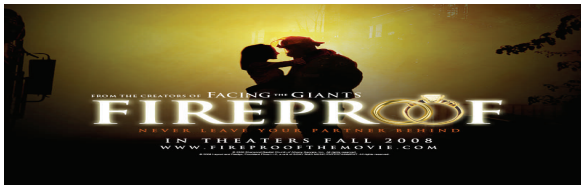

If you are truly saved, then you will desire God not this world, you will strive to crucify the flesh each day until your walk becomes holier and holier. Understanding the Word is essential to this process. You will grow to hate the things of this world and love the things of God. You are commanded to understand His Word and He says you can:

But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. 1 John 2:27

If you don't believe that saved Christians can understand the Word of God, then I pray that you drop to your knees and repent, as your soul is not saved. The problem is that the majority of people who claim to be Christians also claim you cannot understand His Word. This is evidence that they are false teachers and you should flee from their teaching and even their presence.

For the few that are left. Read on. We must understand that there is a massive spiritual war ongoing here on planet earth that makes WWII look like a preschool brawl:

Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Continued on pg 4 ...

At work, inside burning buildings, Capt. Caleb Holt lives by the old firefighters adage: Never leave your partner behind. At home, in the cooling embers of his marriage, he lives by his own rules. Growing up, Catherine Holt always dreamed of marrying a loving, brave firefighter...just like her daddy. Now, after seven years of marriage, Catherine wonders when she stopped being "good enough" for her husband. Regular arguments over jobs, finances, housework, and outside interests have readied them both to move on to something with more sparks. As the couple prepares to enter divorce proceedings, Caleb's father challenges his son to commit to a 40-day experiment: "The Love Dare." Wondering if it's even worth the effort, Caleb agrees—for his father's sake more than for his marriage. When Caleb discovers the book's daily challenges are tied into his parents' newfound faith, his already limited interest is further dampened. While trying to stay true to his promise, Caleb becomes frustrated time and again. He finally asks his father, "How am I supposed to show love to somebody who constantly rejects me?" When his father explains that this is the love Christ shows to us, Caleb makes a life-changing commitment to love God. And with God's help he begins to understand what it means to truly love his wife. But is it too late to fireproof his marriage? His job is to rescue others. Now Caleb Holt is ready to face his toughest job ever ... rescuing his wife's heart.

SATAN SHOWS UP AT A CONNECTICUT COFFEE SHOP

The present

AOO Wire Service—A coffee shop where professing Christians meet each Tuesday afternoon was the scene of a satan appearance. They have been meeting there for two years and none of them knew whether the people working there were saved or not, they never even asked them about Jesus!

An evangelist visited one week and challenged these “Christians” to obey the Great Commission, after the “Christians” revealed that they never witness the gospel unless someone comes up to them and asks them. They said that they are the “light”. All but the Leader admitted that no one ever came up to them. The Leader stated he had witnessed to about 6 people over the course of 20 years, yet he didn’t remember who or where they are.

The Leader stated that it is rude and not biblical to walk up to total strangers and witness the gospel. Moments later the evangelist excused himself from the group and witnessed to all the employees and all the patrons of this WiFi coffee shop. No one was angered, many thanked the evangelist for explaining the gospel so simply.

Upon return from the witnessing the Leader was noticeably disturbed by the evangelist’s actions, and shortly excused himself from the meeting. The evangelist thought that the Leader was convicted and he then prayed for the Leader.

The next time the evangelist met at the coffee shop he said hi to the “brothers” then went about the work of his Father, witnessing the gospel to all creatures. There was one Catholic couple who spent 45 minutes with the evangelist asking all kinds of questions. The evangelist saw them humbling themselves as they were taken through the righteous law of God.

When returning to the group of “brothers” the evangelist tried to ask the Leader about the Great Commission, but the Leader pushed his agenda of loving all brothers where they are in their walks, and that no one was allowed to bring their own agendas to this meeting.

The evangelist gave them all Hell’s Best Secret DVD’s, but the Leader threw it down on the table and stated that “The problem with these DVD’s is that you can’t record over them.” He left without taking the DVD.

Three weeks later the evangelist returned to the coffee shop to challenge these professing Christians to obey Jesus and preach the gospel to every creature Luke 16:15.

But there was one brother there that had lots of theological questions, which the evangelist answered through Scripture. The Leader in a condescending way asked the inquisitive brother to stop bothering the evangelist. But the brother said he respected the evangelist because he felt the evangelist is walking in Christ. This infuriated the Leader, his demeanor required control but he lashed out with small zingers.

Shortly thereafter all but the Leader, the Leader’s longtime follower, and the evangelist were left. Almost immediately when the last of the other brothers left, the Leader’s anger rose to a level that evangelist noticed the cold stare. The evangelist by calling he didn’t know the didn’t have depth or had. The Leader said was obviously not of Christ. The Leader’s eyes darkened to angry Leader began to degrade the him names and telling him that love of Christ, and stating he knowledge of the Word as he that the “interpretation” of “go” was incorrect, that it didn’t physically mean to go and preach but to just sit back and be part of God’s plan.

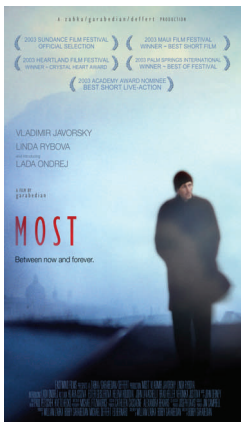

The evangelist heard the Holy Spirit warn him that this Leader was not a warrior of Christ but in fact a warrior of satan. The evangelist used Scripture to prove God’s Word, but the Leader rejected God’s Word by claiming men without knowledge translated it. The Leader grew angry and began raising his voice, the people in the shop were concerned, even the Leader’s faithful follower motioned for him the calm down. When the evangelist asked whether it was a true act of love when Jesus died for us, and that was the ultimate act of love. The Leader said yes but Jesus was God. The evangelist stated that if the Leader believed that the Bible was all about love then why does the Leader act in anger now. The evangelist also asked him that if we claim to follow Christ shouldn’t we be willing to tell the lost the Truth and die for them the way Christ did. The Leader stated that all the lost had already heard the gospel and choose to reject it, therefore they are going to hell. He stated that all we are to do is have relationships with the brothers, and help them in their knowledge.

The evangelist stated that was not correct, that the only time the heavens rejoice is when one soul enters the kingdom, and that Jesus loves the lost so much that he died yet while we were still sinners! The evangelist told the Leader that it seemed that he had a double standard by saying that no one could bring their theology into this meeting yet the Leader presides and judges according to his theology. The evangelist told the Leader that the standard should be that we sharpen iron as brothers, and learn from each other with the direction of the Holy Spirit. The Leader said theology was not allowed. The evangelist had spoken the Truth, the Leader side so the evangelist followed the Holy Spirit and left the encounter, to return, but only warn the others teacher. The Leader tried to end the happy note by stating to the it was a good meeting because he follower got to know the evangelist was on satan’s lead of the with no plans of this false meeting with a evangelist that a n d h i s better. The evangelist quickly noticed how the Leader did a 180 degree turn from his attitude just moments before. This Leader’s soul, who claims to be a Christian, yet has shown a side that contradicts the fruits of the spirit, is in God’s hands. Please pray that he is delivered from the evil spirit that controls him.

Editor’s note: Saint’s these are the end times, Not only are the churches filled with false converts and false teachers, but even the meeting places of where the “real” Christians meet, has satan reared his ugly self. Beware saints, satan is out there as a roaring lion devouring all those who are not in Christ. Remember, satan is imitating the Light, he is deceitful so he will come as close to the Light as he can so the unrighteous will be fooled. Satan was called the morning star, he is the fallen one! You must repent of you acceptance of the false churches and false teachers and pray that God gives you the full amour! The battle is drawing to a close, and yet the majority of people who claim Christ, don’t even know him. I have seen brothers, who I respected as men of God, reject His Word as they are swooned by this Leader and all other leaders that work for satan. Remember, you are either 100% for Christ or you are His enemy!

Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Ephesians 6:11-13

So what is this "whole armor of God" anyway? Well first we must understand that we are warriors of Christ, when Paul wrote to Timothy he used military terms, "fight the good fight of faith", "endure as a good soldier". If we aren't a friend of Christ then we are an "enemy of God".

So how does an army act? An army acts as one, period. Losing armies act as independent soldiers. This is why Christianity is taking heavy casualties now, the Body of Christ, (the army of Christ) is not one. There are some of us that engage in the war full time, but we have hardly any comrades fighting side by side, and we engage in battles spread all over the world. There are some warriors that have the privilege of fighting with some strong Platoons, but there are no Companies, no Battalions, and certainly no Brigades, therefore Christianity no longer has an army, just some Militia and the pockets of Resistance.

Whose fault is this? YOURS! You don't understand the Word and you follow false teachers. You let your feelings and emotions tickle your ears until each one of you finds a denomination or church that makes you feel good, and you mistake that as hearing from the Holy Spirit. You are BLIND and DEAF. Your orders stand in front of you in His written Word, but you argue and fight with anyone who speaks the Plain Truth to you. You are DECIEVED. Read the Word, not Man Scripture. Reject teachings that contradict the Written WORD. Books that lift up the Word as holy are good, all others throw away.

This is what an army does, they strip away the learned thinking of each recruit until their minds have cleansed themselves. Then they teach them their knowledge so when the battle comes they will follow orders and perform as they were taught.

God put Jesus through this basic training, "Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;" Hebrews 5:8

God wants to do the same to us, if we truly join His army, he desires to drive the world out of us until we can take control of the circumstances we encounter and the fear that erupts from those circumstances. Then we can then face the enemy as a soldier of Christ.

Most of the time I hear the excuse of fear from people who refuse to obey Jesus when He commanded us to preach the gospel to every creature. Christians, only through the power of Christ can you gain control of your fears, and in order to obey Christ and witness the gospel you MUST overcome your fears. Most of you use smoke screens of false applications of the Word to justify your disobedience to witness the gospel. This is weak of you and offensive to God, REPENT!

When the war becomes intense, all members of the army will sooner or later have to put down their frying pans, keyboards, shovels, syringes, and whatever other tools they use in their jobs, and go fight on the front lines! Christians, the enemy is taking control of this war, as prophesized, and the only thing we can do is fight the good fight and preach the gospel and win souls for the Kingdom before the enviable end comes.

Study the inventory for our battle so that you may be prepared to engage the enemy, then next issue we will discuss the armament and the battle plans:

Ephesians 6:10-18

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and

How To Preach Without Converting Anybody by Charles Finney

Preach on every doctrine that centers the attention on man rather than Jesus. Teach every doctrine that makes man the center of God's attention rather than God the center of man's devotion. Tell people only what God will do for them.

Avoid preaching about the necessity of a radical change of heart, through the truth revealed to the heart by the agency of the Holy Spirit.

Let your supreme motive to be popular with all people, then, of course, your preaching will be suited for that purpose, and not to convert souls to Christ.

Avoid preaching doctrines that are offensive to the carnal mind, so that no one should say to you, as they did of Christ, "This is a hard saying, who can hear it?"

Make no distinct points, and do not disturb the consciences of your hearers so that they may become truly alarmed about their souls.

Avoid all illustrations, repetitions, and expressive sentences that may compel people to remember what you say.

Avoid all heat and enthusiasm in your delivery, so that you never make the impression that you really believe what you say.

Make appeals to the emotions, and not the conscience, of your hearers.

Be careful not to testify from your own personal experience of the power of the gospel, so that you never should produce the conviction upon your hearers that you have something which they need.

Do not stir up uncomfortable memories by reminding your hearers of their past sins.

Denounce sin in a general way, but make no reference to the specific sins of your present audience.

Do not make the impression that God commands your listeners here and now to obey the truth. Do not let them think that you expect them to commit themselves right on the spot to give their hearts to God.

Give the impression that they are expected to go away in their sins, and to consider the matter at later time of their convenience.

Preach salvation by grace; but ignore the condemned and lost condition of the sinner so that he never should understand what you mean by grace, and know his need of it.

Preach the gospel as a remedy or a cure, but conceal or ignore the fatal disease of the sinner.

Do not speak of the spirituality of God's holy law (by which comes the knowledge of sin), so that the sinner never should see his lost condition and repent.

Make no appeals to the fears of sinners; but give them the impression that they have no reason to fear.

Preach Christ as an infinitely friendly and good-natured being. Ignore those scathing rebukes of sinners and hypocrites which so often made His hearers tremble.

Do not rebuke the worldly tendencies of the church, so that you should never hurt their feelings, and finally convert some of them.

Admit, either obviously or casually, that all men have some moral goodness in them; so that sinners should never understand that they need a radical change of heart, from sin to holiness.

Say so little of hell that your people will think that you do not believe in its existence yourself.

Make the impression that, if God is as good as you are, He could not send anyone to hell.

Make no disagreeable reference to the teachings of self-denial, cross-bearing, and crucifixion to the world, so that you should never convict and convert some of your church members.

Do not rebuke extravagance in dress, so that you should never make an uncomfortable impression on your vain and worldly church members.

Encourage lots of church socials, and attend them yourself.

Aim to make your hearers pleased with themselves and pleased with you, and be careful especially not to wound the feelings of anyone.

Make sure you avoid preaching to those who are present. Preach about sinners, but not to them. Say "they," and not "you," so that anyone should never take your subject personally, and apply it to their own life, Securing the salvation of their soul.

Preach that the new birth is something God deposits in people, not a fundamental change in the ultimate purpose of our lives.

Never tell people that they must cease from serving self and serve God and do His will.

Never tell them that repentance is man's ability and responsibility to turn from his sin to God! Teach them to delay turning away from all known sin toward God.

Preach predestination in such away that results in fatalism and apathy on the part of all people. Make each person believe that God has already determined who shall be saved, and nothing can change His will. You never want anyone to think that their actions can make any difference.

Preach that man is totally unable to obey God. Teach him that no one can turn to God, but he must wait upon God to turn (change) him. Make sure that no one realizes his true responsibility requiring him to repent in order to be saved. You never want anyone to know that man can turn from sin to God but the real problem is that he will not!

Preach that every one is born a sinner and a criminal. Teach that every baby is born guilty before God. You never want anyone to consider the fact that man is born morally innocent. You do not want anyone to know that he becomes a sinner because, in his rebellion, he has refused to love God with all his heart according to the light and has selfishly sought his own happiness above all else.

Preach that a person can be saved without making Jesus his lord.

Teach that holiness is just an option and not a requirement of the gospel. Teach them that they can be Christian without becoming true disciples.

Preach eternal security in such away that requires no perseverance in faith or continuance in holiness on the part of the believer. Make every person think he has his ticket to heaven that is all paid for so that he will always safely scoff at all calls for repentance and righteous.

Teach Christians that sin is a normal and natural part of their every day life and that they can never truly expect to ever overcome sin through the power of Christ.

Preach that no Christian needs to do anything. Teach them that they are safe and heaven bound even if their lives are disobedient and rebellious.
